

٣٨٧. وَقَالَ (عليه السلام): مَا خَيْرٌ بِخَيْرِ بَعْدَهُ النَّارُ، وَمَا شَرٌّ بِشَرِّ بَعْدَهُ الْجَنَّةُ، وَكُلُّ نَعِيمٍ دُونَ الْجَنَّةِ فَهُوَ مُحَقَّقٌ وَكُلُّ بَلَاءٍ دُونَ النَّارِ عَاقِبَةٌ.

387. Amīr al-mu'minīn, peace be upon him, said: That good is no good after which there is the Fire, and that hardship is no hardship after which there is Paradise. Every bliss other than Paradise is inferior and every calamity other than the Fire is comfort.
