

ومن دعاء له (عليه السلام) يلتجئ إلى الله أن يغنيه

Supplication (seeking sufficiency from Allāh)

اللَّهُمَّ صِنِّ وَجْهِي بِالْيَسَارِ، وَلَا تَبْدُلْ جَاهِي بِالْاِقْتَارِ، فَأَسْتَرْزِقَ طَالِبِي رِزْقِكَ، وَأَسْتَعْتِفَ شِرَارِ خَلْقِكَ، وَأُبْتَلَى بِحَمْدٍ مَنْ أَعْطَانِي، وَأَفْتَنَّ بِذَمِّ مَنْ مَنَعَنِي، وَأَنْتَ مِنْ وَرَاءِ ذَلِكَ كُلِّهِ وَلِيُّ الْأَعْطَاءِ وَالْمَنْعِ، ﴿إِنَّكَ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ﴾

O My Allāh! Preserve (the grace of) my face with easiness of life and do not disgrace my countenance with destitution, lest I may have to beg a livelihood from those who beg from Thee, try to seek the favour of Thy evil creatures, engage myself in praising those who give to me, and be tempted in abusing those who do not give to me, although behind all these Thou art the master of giving and denying. “. . . Verily Thou over all things, art the All-powerful.” (Qur’ān, 66:8)